

CHURCHILL
LIVINGSTONE

Heart Disease in Infancy : Diagnosis and Surgical Treatment

Proceedings of the Second International Symposium held at Green Lane Hospital, Auckland, New Zealand, February 1972.

Edited by Brian G. Barratt-Boyes; John M. Neutze;
and Edward A. Harris

1973 356 pages 114 illustrations £8.00.

'Many of the most challenging aspects of congenital heart disease in infancy are discussed in considerable detail, both as regards diagnosis and postoperative management.'—Extract from the preface.

Recent Advances in Cardiology

Edited by John Hamer

1973 Sixth Edition 438 pages 110 illustrations £5.50.

This volume provides a practical guide to some of the newer developments that have dramatically changed both medical and surgical approaches to many aspects of cardiology.

Clinical Aspects of Thromboembolism

W. R. Pitney

1973 208 pages 27 illustrations £3.00.

'This monograph is intended to serve as a practical guide to diagnosis and management for those involved in the care of patients with thromboembolism.'—Extract from the preface.

23 Ravelston Terrace, Edinburgh